Celebrating Achievements and Commitments - J. S. Graduation Ceremony at Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya Nadiad

The recently held graduation ceremony at Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya Nadiad marked a momentous occasion for the students, faculty, and esteemed guests who gathered to celebrate the accomplishments of the graduating batch from 2017 to 2023. Hosted under the aegis of the Mahagujarat Medical Society and affiliated with the Maganbhai Adanwala Mahagujarat University, the event was a vibrant reflection of academic excellence and a promising future for the graduates.

The ceremony was not just about formalities; it was an emotional journey that brought forth a beautiful video presentation through audio-visual media. This nostalgic montage allowed the graduates to relive cherished memories from their academic journey. As the students showcased their accomplishments, the audience was reminded of the hard work, dedication, and growth that had shaped these individuals during their time at Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya Nadiad.

The ceremony was graced by the presence of eminent personalities, including Mr. Bhaskarbai Desai, Chairman of the Mahagujarat Medical Society and President of Maganbhai Adanwala Mahagujarat University, Vice-Chairman Sumanbhai Sheikh, and Director of PG Studies Dr. Pradeep Vaishnav. The esteemed gathering also included Prof. Dr. Kalapi Patel, Principal of J.S. Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya and Dean of the Faculty of Ayurveda, along with the Registrar Prof. D. J. Vyas and other members of the Board of Governance.

Amidst the celebratory atmosphere, parents expressed their heartfelt gratitude towards the institution. Their words reflected the pride and joy they felt seeing their children reach this significant milestone. The ceremony served as a testament to the collaborative efforts of the faculty, students, and parents, creating a sense of community and shared accomplishment.

In his inspiring convocation speech, Prof. Dr. Kalapi Patel urged the graduating students to embark on their journey into public life with dedication and hard work. He emphasized the importance of contributing to the nation and society with values, loyalty, and honesty. The convocation became a platform for the students to take a solemn pledge for the betterment of the nation, setting a tone for their future endeavours.

The J. S. Graduation Ceremony at Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya Nadiad was not just a culmination of academic achievements but a celebration of commitment, dedication, and the promise of a brighter future. As the graduates step into the next chapter of their lives, equipped with knowledge and values instilled by their alma mater, they carry with them the responsibility to contribute positively to the nation and society. The ceremony served as a fitting tribute to the collective efforts that have shaped these individuals into capable and responsible professionals.

Celebrating Wisdom:

MAM University's VC Dr. S N Gupta

Honored at the World's Largest Gathering of Ayurveda

The hallowed grounds of Haridwar recently witnessed a confluence of ancient wisdom and youthful energy at the aptly named "Ayurveda Kumbh." This unique event, held from December 22nd to 24th, 2023, broke a world record by bringing together over 5,000 young Ayurveda practitioners - a testament to the growing vibrancy of this ancient medicine

Among the luminaries gracing the occasion was our own esteemed Vice Chancellor, Dr. S N Gupta, who played a pivotal role in shaping the event's success. In a fitting recognition of his tireless contributions to Ayurveda education and research, Dr. Gupta was bestowed with the prestigious "Saptarshi Sanman." This award, named after the legendary seven sages, signifies Dr. Gupta's remarkable dedication to upholding the highest ideals of Ayurveda.

A Guiding Light for Young Minds:

Dr. Gupta's passion for Ayurveda is infectious. He has been instrumental in shaping MAM University into a leading center for Ayurvedic learning, attracting bright minds from across the globe. His vision is to bridge the gap between tradition and modernity, ensuring that Ayurveda remains relevant and accessible in the 21st century.

At the Ayurveda Kumbh, Dr. Gupta's presence inspired the young practitioners. He engaged them in stimulating discussions, drawing upon his vast knowledge and experience to ignite their passion for the field. His gentle guidance and mentorship were invaluable to these future custodians of Ayurvedic wisdom.

Beyond Recognition, a Call to Action:

The "Saptarshi Sanman" is not just an honor for Dr. Gupta; it is a call to action for all of us at MAM University. It reminds us of the immense responsibility we shoulder in nurturing the next generation of Ayurveda practitioners. As we celebrate Dr. Gupta's achievement, let us also rededicate ourselves to his vision: to make MAM University a beacon of excellence in Ayurveda, propelling this ancient healing system to new heights

"Ensuring Safety:

Dinsha Patel College of Nursing Conducts Emergency Fire Safety Training for First-Year Students"

Dinsha Patel College of Nursing takes proactive measures to enhance campus safety with a dedicated Emergency Fire Safety Training session for its first-year students. In this comprehensive program, students actively participated in hands-on learning experiences, including practical demonstrations and evacuation drills. The session aimed to equip students with crucial skills and knowledge, emphasizing the importance of a swift and organized response in the event of a fire emergency.

During the training, students familiarized themselves with various fire safety equipment, such as fire extinguishers and emergency exits. This interactive approach ensures that students are not only aware of safety measures but also proficient in using the necessary tools effectively.

By prioritizing safety preparedness, Dinsha Patel College of Nursing underscores its commitment to creating a secure learning environment. The hands-on nature of the training empowers students to be proactive and confident in responding to potential fire incidents, contributing to an overall culture of safety within the college community.

"Harmony and Heritage:
J. S. Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya's
Vibrant Annual Festival
'Ram Aye Hai Ayodhya Mein'"

In a celebration that echoed with cultural richness and spiritual significance, J. S. Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya in Nadiad recently hosted its one-day annual festival, centering around the theme "Ram Aye Hai Ayodhya Mein." This cultural extravaganza, meticulously organized and managed by the students, showcased a seamless blend of academic achievement, artistic expression, and spiritual resonance.

The event was graced by esteemed personalities, including Shri Dinsha Patel, President of Mahagujarat Medical Society, Mr. Bhaskarbai Desai, Chairman of Mahagujarat Medical Society and President of Maganbai Adenwala Mahagujarat University, Vice-Chairman Sumanbai Sheikh, Swamiji Shri Mudivadananda Saraswatiiji from Anand Ashram, Vice Chancellor of the University Professor Dr. S. N. Gupta, Director of PG Studies Dr. Pradeep Vaishnav, Principal J. S. Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya and Dean Faculty of Ayurveda Maganbai Edenwala Mahagujarat University Prof. Dr. Kalapi Patel, Registrar Prof. D. J. Vyas, and more

As part of the festivities, the student union proudly unveiled the latest edition of Vedayu 2023 magazine. This publication, curated under the guidance of magazine secretary Yeshvi Sakaria and faculty in charge Dr. Vaishali Vasavada, serves as a testament to the academic prowess and creative talents of the students.

In a gesture of appreciation, students who excelled academically at both the college and university levels were honoured with cash prizes. This acknowledgment not only celebrated their hard work and dedication but also motivated others to strive for excellence.

Cultural Extravaganza: "Ram Aye Hai Ayodhya Mein":

The heart of the festival was a captivating program that unfolded the life of Sri Ram Bhagwan through a medley of dramas, dances, and soul-stirring songs. Executed entirely by the students, this performance showcased their artistic flair and dedication. General Secretary Yashvi Sakaria, Fine Art Secretary Darshan Jagatia, and Faculty In-charge Dr. Matangi Pandya played pivotal roles in guiding and preparing the students for this mesmerizing presentation.

Highlighting the spirit of collaboration and leadership among the students, the entire festival was organized by the student body. Their passion and commitment were evident in every aspect of the event, from conceptualization to execution.

The one-day annual festival at J. S. Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya was more than a cultural showcase—it was a celebration of the institution's values, academic achievements, and cultural heritage. Through the amalgamation of spirituality, academics, and the arts, the event demonstrated the holistic development fostered within the university. As the general secretary concluded the program with heartfelt thanks, the echoes of this vibrant celebration lingered as a testament to the vibrant spirit and unity within the J. S. Ayurveda Mahavidyalaya community.

The open and frank discussions during the session served as a testament to the positive and supportive atmosphere cultivated by the University

This impactful seminar marks a significant step forward in MAM University's ongoing fight against ragging. By empowering students and faculty with knowledge and creating a platform for open dialogue, the University is building a stronger, more inclusive community where every student feels respected and valued. The resounding message of "Say NO to Ragging" will undoubtedly continue to echo throughout the corridors of MAM University, reminding everyone of their responsibility to uphold these vital values

"Morning Motivation:

'12th Fail' Screening Inspires at Dinsha Patel College of Nursing"

In a refreshing departure from the routine, Dinsha Patel College of Nursing, in collaboration with IQAC, recently hosted a morning screening of the inspirational film "12th Fail." Based on the true-life story of IPS officer Manoj Kumar Sharma, the movie resonated with students and faculty, offering valuable life lessons.

This unique morning initiative not only added a touch of inspiration to the daily routine but also showcased the college's commitment to holistic student development. The positive impact of "12th Fail" lingered, leaving an indelible mark on the college culture at Dinsha Patel College of Nursing

Transforming the college auditorium into a hub of motivation, the event allowed the audience to draw parallels between the challenges faced by Sharma and their own experiences. An interactive session followed, fostering a sense of unity and shared motivation

YOUTH FESTIVAL ORGANIZED BY Maganbhai Adnawala Mahagujarat University

Stay tuned for more exciting initiatives from MAM University as we continue to nurture and celebrate the diverse talents of our student community.

On January 25, 2024, the first-ever Youth Festival organized by Maganbhai Adnawala Mahagujarat University took place with a grand inauguration by the esteemed presence of Shri Dinsha Patel. The University President, Shri Bhaskarbai Desai, formally commenced the festival in the gracious presence of other dignitaries.

Throughout the day, a total of 22 events, including activities such as skits, mime, music, art, quiz, elocution, and debate, were organized. More than 200 students from the faculties of Ayurveda, Nursing, and IT actively participated in these events. The festival saw the active involvement of distinguished personalities from various fields, serving as judges and adding grandeur to the occasion.

The morning events were held in the D.P.C.N Auditorium, with the grand stage event being the highlight in the colossal Holm of the D.P.C.N complex. In the evening, at Ipcowala hall, The President, Shri Bhaskarbai Desai, Vice President Shri Natubhai Adnawala, Vice Chancellor Dr. S.N. Gupta, Registrar Shri D.J. Vyas, DPCN director Dr. Bhavik Shelat & Director Post graduate studies at ayurveda Dr. Pradip Vaishnav and Deputy Registrar Dr. Hardik Yagnik graced the awards function. Members of the Governing Board were also present to witness the splendid ceremony.

Certificates of appreciation were bestowed upon the winners, with the Faculty of Ayurveda winning the prestigious Overall Championship Award. Despite fewer participants from the B.C.A. students, they displayed immense enthusiasm and won several individual event prizes.

The Artificial Intelligence Youth Festival, a remarkable initiative by the university, was a standout feature of the event. The A.I. Image Making event, in particular, marked a historic moment as it was conducted for the first time in any youth festival.

The vote of thanks was done by Mr. Sadaya Joshi, Director of Skill Development. The University takes pride in pioneering the inclusion of Artificial Intelligence in various competitions, setting a new benchmark for future events.

The University expresses gratitude to all participants, faculty members, judges, and organizers for making the Youth Festival a resounding success. This innovative and vibrant celebration of talent and creativity is a testament to the University's commitment to holistic education and extracurricular development.

Celebrating Shree Ram Pran Pratishtha Mahotsav at Various faculties of the university

DPCN & JSAM recently resonated with the spirit of devotion and celebration as students and faculty came together to commemorate the Shree Ram Pran Pratishtha Mahotsav. The atmosphere was filled with enthusiasm, zeal, and a sense of spiritual togetherness during this special occasion.

Highlights of the Celebration:

1. Rangoli and Decoration: Students showcased their artistic talents through vibrant rangoli designs that adorned the college premises. The entire campus was transformed into a colorful spectacle, reflecting the festive spirit of Shri Ram Utshav.

2. Lighting the Lamp: The ceremonial lighting of the lamp marked the auspicious beginning of the celebration. The illuminated lamp symbolized the dispelling of darkness and the ushering in of positivity.

3. Rally for Ram: A spirited rally was organized, with students and faculty members parading through the college grounds, displaying banners and posters depicting scenes from the life of Lord Ram. The rally not only celebrated the deity but also served as a symbol of unity and shared cultural values.

4. Creating Ram Name by Human Chain: In a unique display of teamwork and creativity, students formed a human chain to spell out the name 'Ram.' This activity not only showcased their unity but also represented their collective devotion to Lord Ram.

5. Live Show of Ayodhya Pran Pratishtha Mahotsav: The celebration reached its pinnacle with a live show featuring the Ayodhya Pran Pratishtha Mahotsav. This live presentation allowed everyone to immerse themselves in the divine atmosphere of the consecration ceremony, enhancing the spiritual experience for all.

The Shree Ram Pran Pratishtha Mahotsav celebration at MAM university was a harmonious blend of cultural, artistic, and spiritual activities. It provided a platform for students and faculty to come together, express their devotion, and strengthen the bond of camaraderie within the college community.

As we reflect on these joyous moments, we express gratitude to all those who contributed to the success of the celebration. May the divine blessings of Lord Ram continue to guide and inspire us on our collective journey of growth and learning.

Jai Shree Ram!
